(Special to The Caledonian.)

Burlington, June 27.—The first regiment of infantry, Vermont National Guard, entrained this afternoon at Fort Ethan Allen, en route to Eagle Pass, Texas, where it is expected the troops will arrive Friday. The Vermont troops were in command of Col. Ira L. Reeves.

The command included 47 officers and 859 enlisted men. The sanitary troops of four officers and 24 privates, commanded by Major T. J. Hagan, accompanied the regiment.

About 150 recruits, for whom equipment has not been received, will remain at Camp Governor Gates, Capt. Hyland of Rutland being in charge of the recruiting camp.

The first squadron of cavalry of 150 men remains in charge of Major Wallace Batchelder, to be recruited to full war strength of four troops of 150 men each.

The regiment entrained in three sections, the first at 12.45 p. m. and the last at 4.15 p. m., Company D of St. Johnsbury being in the last.

Adj. Gen. Tillotson will remain until the work of recruiting is completed.

The regiment goes by way of Binghamton where it will receive supplies of shoes and socks and anti-typhoid serum with which the men will be inoculated on their arrival at their station. Their route thereafter is by way of Chicago, Kansas City, through Oklahoma to San Antonio, Texas, and thence to Eagle Pass.
